

The Port Arthur News

VOL. XXII. 180.

PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS, THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1923.

Somewhere in Pt. Arthur is Her Majesty the Queen.

THE CITY OF PORT ARTHUR can, on very short notice, furnish a hundreds queens. All of them would be all that is to be desired in attractiveness, beauty, grace and poise—real majestic personages.

However, for the successful winner of The News Queen Voting Contest, with the city at large to draw from, the very elite of queens is expected to be named to occupy the auspicious center of interest in the gorgeously planned Quarter Centennial Celebration coronation.

Honor thus bestowed upon the successful Port Arthur girl contestant is sufficient prize or award for winning the popularity contest.

CONSIDERABLE COMMENT was forthcoming among Rotarians of Orange Tuesday, when the Port Arthur club was entertained in that city and the invitation for selection of a princess for the Centennial occasion was announced.

"We have nothing but queens in Orange," the Rotarians of that city contended.

BUT THIS QUEEN contest is strictly a Port Arthur affair. That much is settled. A young lady from this city will occupy the honor position. Orange and five other cities in this immediate vicinity will each furnish one princess for the occasion.

Committees appointed for the Fourth of July celebration, by the Centennial executive committee, include a throne committee. Instructions were to the effect that no expense is to be spared in arranging for the most brilliant setting ever attempted in connection with a similar celebration.

Nothing will be left undone to make apparent the royal splendor of the occasion, befitting the crowning of a queen to rule in the most outstanding celebration in the history of Port Arthur's 25 years of existence.

THE VOTING COUPON in the queen contest will be printed every day. A coupon, when properly filled out and mailed or sent in to the Queen Contest Editor of The News, Port Arthur, Texas, will represent one vote for the contestant named in the blank provided for that purpose. NEW COUNCIL SITS, ADJOURNS

45-Minute Session Has Little Before It

FULL COMMISSION

Marks First Morning Session Since Change

The new city administration, stepping into office yesterday but casting aside official cares to participate in Memorial Day, held its first session in the history of Port Arthur under a full time mayor this morning.

The occasion marked a return to morning sessions of the council which will be continued during the administration.

Exactly 45 minutes were required today to dispose of the city's business, ready for submission to the commissioners' meeting at 11 a. m. The session got under way at 11:15 and adjourned promptly at 12 noon.

Secretary Abbey of the city school board asked the commissioners for action looking toward fixing up the unsightly premises of DeQueen park.

Remove Excavated Dirt

An agreement was reached whereby the city will remove excavated dirt from the DeQueen school, where an addition has been made, on the park grounds, less than a block away.

The school board then agreed to maintain the part of the park which they will use as a playground.

The matter was referred to City Engineer Herpin who will attend to the carrying out of the city's part of the project. The grounds still will be a public park. The school board utilizing only a portion of it. The engineer will also look after cutting of grass on edges of the park site.

War on Ants

The city will entertain a proposition, presented today, for eradication of ants from its various properties. No contract was entered into, but a representative appeared before the commissioners, leaving a proposition in their hands.

There were other minor matters introduced.

A full commission was present at the first session of that body held at the 11 o'clock hour. Meetings previously have been held at 4 p. m.

Mayor J. P. Logan was in the chair, and Commissioners B. J. Wade and Ben Wiley were present as well as City Engineer Herpin, City Attorney Wistner and Fire Chief LaRose.

TYRRELL TO LET STORE CONTRACT

Another Contract By Business Men Here Brewing TO COMPLETE BLOCK

Weller's Stores on Fifth to Begin in 30 Days

Business houses to cover the entire block from the John R. Adams place of business on the corner of Fifth and Austin and extending to the corner of Fifth and Fort Worth will probably be erected some time this year, it was indicated by prominent business men here today.

Tyrrell Contract Monday

With the removal of a residence in the block during the present week, it was understood that Captain Tyrrell will let the contract for the construction of a new business house adjacent to the John R. Adams building on Fifth street Monday.

It has not been announced when the construction of this building will begin.

The Weller's building, construction plans for which were announced a week ago, will be constructed adjacent to this structure, and will occupy a space approximately 50 by 130 feet. Weller will use the upper story as a store house space, while it is probable that a bicycle shop and a drug store may be placed in the lower part.

Weller to Start in 30 Days

Weller let it be known this morning that he is drawing plans for the structure at the present time, but indicated that it will probably be 30 days before the actual construction work is begun.

It was also learned today that a fourth business house is being contemplated by other Port Arthur business men, to occupy a space adjacent to the Weller and Zellers place.

Next to the Weller building, A. T. Weller and B. F. Zellers will build some time this year a modern business building which will be constructed for lease purposes.

The construction of these business houses, will entirely cover the block on Fifth between Austin and Fort Worth.

URGES SMITH TO SIGN REPEAL ACT

New York Governor Leans 'Wet' ward

LABOR CHIEF URGENT

Says Dry Era Failure Since it Has Furthered Crime

ALBANY, N. Y., May 31.—Wets and dries debated prohibition before a one-man jury today, when Governor Al Smith of New York, held open court on the advisability of repealing the state enforcement law.

Mrs. Ida Sammis Woodruff, former assemblywoman, opened the dry attack with an admonition to the League of Women Voters that you were for state cooperation in enforcement of prohibition. Mrs. Woodruff declared.

"In answer to a questionnaire before the last election you told the League of Women Voters that you were for state cooperation in enforcement of prohibition," Mrs. Woodruff declared.

"Corruption Permeates Government"

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, urged the cause of the wets in a letter to the governor.

"There is no doubt," Gompers said, "the finger judgment of the American people" on prohibition will force the next congress to pass a reasonable modification of the drastic and unjust provisions of the Volstead law."

Prohibition, Gompers said, had increased drunkenness, use of narcotics, crime waves, deaths, blindness, insanity and "above all the corruption which has permeated almost every avenue of our federal, state and local government, the flaunting and criticism of that law and the consequent greater disregard for all law and authority."

The Ku Klux Klan "an organization which lays claim to censor of all morals and enforcement of all laws" would condemn Smith if he signed the repeal as he should, Gompers added.

Says Labor Wants Beer

Gompers said if Smith approved the repeal he would give impetus to the movement for modification of the Volstead law while if he vetoed it he would postpone for an indefinite period the rational passage and lawful procedure for the modification of that law.

He warned Smith that he would alienate support if he vetoed it and would gain none even from the people.

American People Too Busy, Court Disaster, Says Spirit

Conan Doyle Announces Receipt of Ghost Message; 'Wisdom Lost in Progress Scramble,' Says 'Moving Finger'

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—A message from the spirit of a well known British publisher, warning the American people they are "too busy," and as a result are court disaster, has been received, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, prominent British spiritualist, declared in a statement here.

Although the statement did not mention the "British journalist" by name, it was believed that Sir Arthur meant Lord Northcliffe.

"The American people are too busy," the spirit message transmitted to him said, according to Doyle. "That was the mistake I made in my life time. I was too busy and I understand now. Wisdom is lost in the scramble for material progress. When men lose wisdom they court disaster."

Important cases on the docket include C. V. Gannaway, on three counts of alleged embezzlement; Dr. A. J. Scott, Beaumont, alleged swindling; H. C. Wadsworth, alleged embezzlement.

Forty-three cases have thus far been set for this term, the majority of which are for alleged violations of the Deam law.

Negotiations for a site between the canal and lake, about 600 yards below the ice plant, are being entered into between the Avant Ready company and the government. This was disclosed in an announcement made today by a member of the firm.

Mississippi at Head

Mr. Taltavall, who has a large plant at Biloxi, Miss., has made a thorough examination of the canal and is said to have found the canal to abound in commercial shrimp.

According to plans now in contemplation, the proposed local plant will employ 150 people and eight boats are to ply the canal for the securing of shrimp.

Optimistic Over Outlook

"Should the present negotiations not materialize we will seek other locations, though the government site is the most favorable for this project," Avant said.

Taltavall, whose interest in establishing a plant here had its inception in his own investigation, is of the opinion that the shrimp industry in Port Arthur can be extensively developed, and if the initial undertaking proves successful it will be followed by additional units," Avant said.

Butler Davenport and His Free Theatre

NEW YORK, May 29.—How would you like to go to the theatre free? They do it in New York. You can come, look, listen and then walk out without paying. But if you like the show real well and want to show your appreciation, you may wish to drop something in a collection basket which a pretty girl passes around.

Butler Davenport, actor-manager-producer-playwright, started this free theatre in his Manhattan Playhouse, New York's smallest theatre. It seems it paid, for after several weeks trial he announced a "sell-out" every night. Eventually he hopes to move into a larger place which will be known as a People's Theatre. Meanwhile he is kept busy writing his plays, producing them, arranging the settings, and watching out that his audience of 208 each night is pleased.

FARMER TO PAY HIGHEST WAGES

And Will Receive Less for Crop, Says U.S. Bureau

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 31.—The American farmer this season will pay the highest price for harvested hands since the war period, it was predicted tonight by G. E. Tucker, field director of the United States Farm Labor Bureau.

"In the face of record demands for labor in other industries, the farmer is forced to bid higher for his help this year than at any other nominal period in the nation's history," declared Tucker.

$5 Plus Expenses

"Farm hands will draw wages ranging from $5 to $5 per day, plus expenses," the labor expert continued, basing his estimate on replies from questionnaires sent to farm bureau agents, employment agencies and farmers in western, southern, and northern agricultural sections.

Simultaneously with the statements of Tucker came the call from governors of wheat growing states for a conference in Chicago June 19-20, to discuss plans for placing wheat production on a paying basis to insure the farmer a fair return for his labor.

The call which was seconded by officials of the farm organizations, declared that the purchasing price of the farmers' dollar was lower today than it has been in a half century.

Wheat Takes Slump

When a severe slump on today's markets, despite reports of the Kansas board of agriculture that the state would harvest the smallest wheat crop in history.

"A fair price for the wheat crop means purchasing power to the farmer, smoking chimneys for American factories and a full dinner pail for American workers," it was stated in the call for a governors' conference.

Discussing the situation facing the farmer this year, Tucker said at least 30,000 outside men would be needed to harvest the Kansas wheat crop alone, in the face of the crop shortage, indicating the extreme scarcity of farm labor.

More than 50,000 more are wanted in four southern states. In addition to an unprecedented demand for harvest hands from other farm sections," declared Tucker.

Texas Harvest June 1

"The harvest will open in Texas about June 1, with the big demand for men coming from West Texas about June 15, where six thousand men are needed. In Oklahoma, 7,500 men are wanted to report June 10, when the cutting begins. Wheat offered in these sections range from $3 to $6 for stalkers, with board and lodging furnished.

"In Kansas the farmers want men in June about the 15th. They will pay a minimum wage of $1 and board."

It's likely to be "ilte non passe" for Port Arthurians who are wont to appropriate Jim's Place by the beach these days. Jim does his grumbling in Spanish but one member of the party caught the drift. "That bunch only left $2 here last time," was Jim's remark. So they paid him $1 last night.

Robert Latimer and "Uncle Joe" Washburne, of the board of directors of Mary Gates hospital, out today seeking dirt for filling in the hospital grounds, found more than they could handle. The city and the Eastern Texas Electric company both offered them supplies. They took the electric company's.

Swimming and fishing party on the beach last evening was slightly held up while the portly form of Ben Wiley searched thither and yon for a pair of shoes. Flashlight in hand, Ben wandered among Fords, rummaged in the sea grass and inspected kits of other party members. Shoes were recovered but the party was 3 minutes behind schedule.

Commission and Fire Lads Dress Up For Annual Photograph

"Watch the birdie! Smile—a little more—there, you are!" Click!—and as the camera made its circuit on the tripod, the annual group picture of the city fire department and commission was taken in front of the city hall.

All of the members of the fire department were dressed in their uniforms, the apparatus had been polished up, and with the mayor and the commission wearing their best smile, the picture is expected to be one that will prove an adornment to the walls of the city hall art gallery.

LOCAL MEN BUY U. S. RADIO HERE

Bids of Peckham and Henry Lohmann Accepted

TO CONTINUE OPERATION

Purchase Price of Plant Not Disclosed

The Port Arthur naval radio station passes into the control of Port Arthur interests within the next two weeks.

Accepting the bid of Henry Lohmann and A. N. Peckham, of the D. M. Picton Towboat company, for the purchase of the station, the navy department at Washington, D. C., officially advised them arrangements to formally turn the radio station over to them are under way. It became known here today.

Commercial Tryout

"We were prompted by a desire to keep the facilities in Port Arthur, but of course if we find the station cannot be operated commercially on a paying basis, we cannot keep it going," Peckham said today, discussing the purchase.

A ten year's extension of the lease on the city's property where the wireless station is located was granted Peckham and Lohmann by the city commission today, the consideration for the lease being $1.

Price Not Announced

Other than to say the purchase of the wireless station represents a "considerable investment," no statement of the actual amount listed in their bid for the station would be made by Peckham. Plans for operating the station are not definitely made, but every effort to give the highest possible service will be made by the new owners, Peckham said.

Port Arthur machinists local will meet at Macabees hall, Monday night June 4, at 7:30.

Officers report that machinists coming from outside points are surprised at the apparent inactivity of the local order in so much as they hold no meetings, business or social.

Believing that it should be the duty of the local membership to meet the new men, who are playing a part in the growth and development of the community, officers request a 100 per cent attendance next Monday night.

Your Favorite Can't Be Queen Unless She Gets Your Votes!

Mails today showed first signs of being flooded with letters from among voters in The News Queen Voting Contest which is to elect the most popular young woman of the city to occupy the center role in the Port Arthur Quarter Centennial celebration—that of being crowned queen of this great history-making event.

Port Arthurians are grasping the idea of the contest as outlined in two previous issues of The News and balloting for the queen bids fair to assume brisk proportions at a rapid pace.

There are yet, however, thousands of residents of Port Arthur, readers of The News, who are entitled to cast one vote or scores or hundreds of votes for as many different candidates as they please, depending on the coupons they hold, who have not so far availed themselves of that privilege. Everybody may have a part in selecting the queen for the centennial celebration. It is but the work of a moment or two to clip The News coupon, write in the contestant's name, the voter's name and send or hand it in to the Contest Editor, The News, Port Arthur, Texas.

This is a popularity contest. Every Port Arthur man and woman knows some winsome, attractive and daintily pretty young miss among their acquaintances who would be just the person to hold sway as Her Majesty over the thousands of "subjects" who will be abroad on this momentous night of July 4.

It takes but a moment to visualize in your mind just how Gladys, Pearl, Mabel, Irene, Sophie, Gertrude, Ina, Annabelle, Rose, Ida, or Miss What-her-Name would look bedecked in the regal splendor of a queen.

Sure, you want her to win in the contest. But in order to win she needs your vote. Fill out the ballot today. Help your favorite to gain the high honor of presiding at an occasion that has never been attempted in Port Arthur before and probably will not be again for 25, 50 or 100

"WHERE STYLE BEGINS"

French royalists caused a violent uproar in the chamber of deputies.

Daudet Waylaid

Deputy Daudet, whose followers last night administered a purple ink shampoo and castor oil to three socialist leaders, was waylaid as he entered the corridor of the chamber.

About 60 deputies surrounded him yelling and hurling curse names. Guards rushed in and Daudet was spirited away while several of the deputies clashed with the guards.

Later when Daudet entered the chamber during debate, members of the left wing leaped from their seats and attempted to attack him. They shouted "Assassin!" as they ran toward him. Officials, however, intervened.

Deputy Herriot demanded in the chamber that the government immediately take steps against the royalists. He declared they were conducting an intolerable fascist regime. Daudet attempted to reply but the left shouted so loudly he could not be heard.

FOSSIL PLANTS REVISE THEORIES

Coal Traceries Show They Existed Millions of Years

CHICAGO, June 1.—Scientific theories of evolution are antedated and revised by discoveries of pre-historical fossils of botanical life in mid-western coal mines. Prof. Adolf C. Noy, a professor of paleobotany at Chicago University, made this announcement today.

"Fine lines and tracing in 'coal balls' from mines in Illinois, Texas, Iowa and other states show that flowering plants of high development existed on earth when, according to present scientific theories, only low forms of moss grew."

A fossilized outline of plant similar to a cornstalk was found in an Illinois coal ball.

Noy claims it existed millions of years ago.

O. HENRY

Recently discovered writings of O. Henry, with a number of the famous short stories. Copyrighted by the O. Henry Foundation and published in cooperation with the O. Henry Foundation.

The Prisoner of Zimble

So the king fell into a furious rage, and he gave out that since the Princess Astia had discovered him there would be a great tourney, and to the knight who would prove himself of the greatest valor he would give the hand of the princess.

And he sent forth a herald to proclaim that he would do this.

And the herald went about the country making his desire known, blowing a great tin horn and riding a noble steed that pranced and galloped, and the villagers gazed upon him with awe and said: "Lo, this is one of them tin-horn gamblers concerning which the chroniclers have told us."

And when the day came, the king sat in the grand stand, holding the part of battle in his hand, and by his side sat the Princess Astia, looking very pale and beautiful, but with mournful eyes from which she scarce could keep the tears.

And the knights who came to the tourney gazed upon the princess in wonder at her beauty, and each swore to win her so that he could marry her and board with the king. Suddenly the heart of the princess gave a great bound, for she saw among the knights one of the poor students with whom she had been in love.

The knights mounted and rode in a line past the grand stand, and the king stopped the poor student, who had the worst horse and the poorest caparisons of any of the knights and said:

"Sir knight, prithee tell me of what that marvelous shaggy and rusty-looking armor of thine is made?"

"O king," said the young knight,

"seeing that we are about to engage in a big fight, I would call it scrap iron, wouldn't you?"

"Odds bodkins!" said the king.

"The youth hath a pretty wit."

The tourney lasted the whole day and at the end two of the knights were left, one of them being the princess' lover.

"Here's enough for a fight, anyhow," said the king. "Come hither, O knight, will you be just for the hand of this lady fair?"

"We just knight," said the knights.

"The two knights fought for two hours and at length the princess' lover prevailed and stretched the other upon the ground. The victorious knight made his horse canter before the king, and bowed low in the saddle.

On the Princess Astia's cheek was a rosy flush; in her eyes the light of excitement shined with the soft glow of love; her lips were parted, her lovely hair unbound, and she grasped the arms of her chair and leaned forward with burning bosom and happy smile to hear the words of her lover.

"You have fought well, sir knight," said the king. "And if there is a boon you crave you have but to name it."

"Then," said the knight, "I will ask you this: I have bought the patent rights in your kingdom for Schneider's celebrated monkey-wrench and I want a letter from you endorsing it."

"But must tell you that there is not a monkey in my kingdom."

With a yell of rage the victorious knight threw himself on his horse and rode away at a furious gallop.

The king was about to speak when a horrible realization flashed upon him and he fell dead in the grand stand.

"My God!" he cried as he expired, "He has forgotten to take the princess with him."

YOU AND I

REFORMERS

The Lord's Prayer has been revised to remove the thought of death, announced Miss Bertha Laine, official of the Religious Educational Council of Ontario, Canada. The new commandments also were recently revised.

Occasionally someone decides he can improve the Bible.

In this iconoclastic age, it wouldn't surprise us to waken some morning and find that a convention of snobs has voted to amend the law of gravity.

WHITE-WINGS

Big cities develop queer items in their expense accounts. It costs New York $184,000 a year to remove animals from its streets. Horses, cats and dogs mostly. But the list of carcasses hauled away by the New York white-wings last year also included an elephant, a lion, several monkeys, and a lot of goats. Dead cats numbered 75,000.

An American city is about as civilized as a structure on the human brain. On the average, functions are so well, which isn't saying much for others.

GRAND

Chicago took on costs court yesterday to cut down 20 old judges and 100 new ones. The city court has a shortage of judges and is looking for more.

AMERICAN

American rail officials are going to invest $1,400,000,000 in improvements this year. It is said that all of the new equipment has gone to a few powerful railroads. One locomotive concern has $70,000,000 in orders on its books with plants operating almost at capacity and billing out $2,000,000 in locomotives and parts weekly. This is one of the reasons why there is a demand for skilled and unskilled labor the country over.

AMERICAN

American socialists demand recognition for Soviet Russia by the United States government. Not while Charles Evans Hughes is secretary of state. Hughes is a law unto himself. In addition to this he picks his associates.

CHAMBER JUSTIFIES ITS EXISTENCE

If the Port Arthur Chamber of Commerce failed to perform another important matter or failed to function again throughout the entire year for that matter its existence would be justified by the fight made before the Jefferson county commissioner's court.

In that fight, conducted to prevent Beaumont from "grabbing" enough spoils from other precincts to build its bridge without touching its own funds, the Port Arthur Chamber saved to the people of this city and No. 2 precinct $48,604.16. That amount was worth fighting for and to such men as Harry Banker, Henry Lohman, Mayor Logan and Howard Smith go the credit for the apparently unequal fight that was won against odds.

The $48,000 that was saved is more than the entire budget collected for the Chamber of Commerce this year. In the four days' fight they saved better than $12,000 a day. It will be well to remember this fact when you are asked to contribute and help support your Chamber of Commerce next year.

CAT CAME BACK

The birds that build their nests near your house this spring probably will be the same ones that camped near you last year. So claims H. King, Horsfield in his new book, "Sidelights on Birds."

Patriotic as the instinct of seeking old homes year after year, is the instinct of birds, "the very fields and woods which constitute home for them being re-sought year after year."

How do they find their way back?

Horsfield writes that the strange way-finding power of migratory birds, leading up to the idea that there exists in birds an instinct which may be classed as a food-finding sense, is not a new discovery, but additional to the five senses possessed by birds and man.

Some of those who are considered "queer," merely have a sixth or psychic sense.

Birds are very human, Horsfield comments. He thinks the lure that makes them return to former homes is their "passionate attachment for their native lands—their true home—in which the most fascinating period of their lives is spent."

Horsfield also claims that certain bird families have distinct sense of the rights of property. Sometimes they fight and drive out invaders of what they consider their exclusive territory. "With rooks it is clear that a given belt of trees is marked out as the property of a particular colony." In other words, a fence.

All birds, he recognized, in cats and dogs, this instinct which leads birds back to their former homes. As the old saying goes: "The cat came back."

But the cat will not come back unless it has affection for its old home. Horsfield says that need its care, according to Prof. F. H. Herriek of West in Reserve University.

The cat, says Herriek, returns home by the power of orientation, a sense of direction. "This power of orientation is a keen sense of muscular feeling, far keener than that possessed by the human body. By it, a cat knows instantly in which direction home lies, through the feeling of its muscles. It is a sense of direction in its most acute form."

A dog owned by Frank Farrow recently was sold and sent by express from Denver to a town 700 miles away. It returned home, limping. Vaudeville now will "stand by." Turn to more important, though possibly less interesting, world events.

A German historian predicts that Germany will lead in Europe in 20 years and that a Romanoff czar again will be ruling in Russia in the course of the next three years. All things are possible in this vale of tears but it is a safe betting proposition that Mr. William Hohenzollern will never return to a throne.

COTTON

"Two things have become impressed on the cotton trade here during the last week," says the New York Times trade reviewer. "One is that the crop is not only late in making its start but that outside of Texas and parts of Oklahoma it is doing poorly, owing to the excessive rains and unseasonably cold weather for the month of May. The other is that the supply of cotton available until the new crop comes in on the market is inadequate to meet spinners' needs without considerable curtailment of the activities of the mills. Texas alone of the whole tier of the cotton states has recently sent in encouraging reports as to the progress of the crop. It is true that Texas produces a third of the crop but in every other state outside of Texas the report is unfavorable." If there is a famine crop coming there should be velvet for the producer this fall.

Judge E. H. Gary of American steel made the announcement that his executive committee could not establish a twelve-hour work day. This over, he advised all the people to put their trust in God and then he fainted and had to be taken away. This should furnish another text for a Samuel Compers sermon.

"THE BROTHER IN BLACK"

A labor agent in North Carolina was fined $1,000 for shipping blacks to the industrial centers of Pennsylvania. A labor agent in South Carolina was fined $500 for having failed to obtain a city license to proceed with his work.

Thousands of blacks are leaving the states east of the river for the industrial centers of the north. Plantations in the Yazoo district of Mississippi have been denuded of blacks. They are going from old Virginia to the industrial centers.

This is a free country. Let them go. The wise ones will remain in the south where economic conditions are vastly different and where the law-abiding and industrious negro has been working out his own destiny ever since the passing of the days of reconstruction.

FRUGAL TO THE CORE

Now a New Englander corrects the story which is so aged that it has long whiskers covering it that witches were burned in Salem in the good old days. His version is that several persons accused of witchcraft were hung and one was smothered, but no one was ever burned. Of course they were not burned. Those early fathers of Salem were a frugal or saving people. They appreciated the high price of cord wood.

REASON WHY

American rail officials are going to invest $1,400,000,000 in improvements this year. It is said that all of the new equipment has gone to a few powerful railroads. One locomotive concern has $70,000,000 in orders on its books with plants operating almost at capacity and billing out $2,000,000 in locomotives and parts weekly. This is one of the reasons why there is a demand for skilled and unskilled labor the country over.

American socialists demand recognition for Soviet Russia by the United States government. Not while Charles Evans Hughes is secretary of state. Hughes is a law unto himself. In addition to this he picks his associates.

LETTER FROM LENLIE PRESCOTT, CARE OF THE SECRET DRAWING

I am going to deposit this letter from Sally Atterton in this little secret drawer and when I am inclined to think my lot is hard and when I find myself rebelling against my little annoyances, I am going to take it out and read it.

Strange, isn't it, that most women will face a great calamity when it comes into their life just as bravely as Sally? I also believe that most of them will worry and fret about the little nagging pin-pricks of life as I do.

Most of us rebel daily against the little encroachments which the social business of living makes upon husband and wife and their lives. These little everyday martyrdoms should be gilded by love with the shining gold of forbearance.

Lovers, as you know dear little Marquise, are never partners in the true sense of the word and most young people are greatly surprised and shocked when they find that marriage is a business, pure and simple.

I am going tomorrow to see Alice off and mother and dad are coming back with me.

I am going to make mother explain what she said in her last letter to me. Why should young married people have worries at the beginning of their married life? Why should that knit their affections so closely together?

I don't believe I shall need this explanation so much as I would have had I not received Sally's letter. Sometimes I almost find it in my heart to envy Sally. She has made herself so indispensable to her husband.

I do not know what I would do if I were placed in a similar position. You probably will not understand this, you "key little Marquise," for, if I read your letters right, you were always just a care-free bit of blithe down that was content to be the serene sweetheart of a king.

Today, my dear, no woman wants to be dependent on any man's whim even though he should be the whim of a love impulse. I shall teach my daughters something stable by which they will be able to support themselves if necessary.

Altho' I will have to tell me something, however, when she comes. She will have to tell me how I can make myself a greater help to Jack.

He has seemed so tired lately. He has wanted to leave the house at night and has hardly spoken to me all the evening.

I hate to tell him I am going to New York as I mean I'll have to ask him for more money. I feel like a beggar as he told me it was his money and he gave me that poor little two dollars with the badly gotten up of a prince bestowing alms on a mendicant.

Dad has got to give me a thousand dollars for Sally. I am sure he will for he always liked her and I believe that her letter has done his daughter more than that much good.

TOMORROW: The same letter continued—Unexpected generosity.

TEN KILLED IN RELIGIOUS WAR

3,000 Attack Police at Durango, Mexico

DURANGO CITY, Mex., June 1.—Soldiers patrolled the streets and churches are closed today following religious rioting which yesterday resulted in 10 deaths and wounding of seventeen.

Three police are among the dead. The killings occurred when a crowd of 3,000 attacked mounted police in front of the governor's palace. They were demonstrating through the streets in protest against the new law which limits the number of ministers of any sect to not more than 25.

Religious students claim the normal number of priests in the state of Durango is 250 and that the law would result in practical extermination of Catholicism.

The crowd began demonstrations at noon yesterday and after three hours listening to speeches began throwing stones at the palace. Police fired high first, and then the battle began.

The only thing more awkward than a country fellow in town is a town fellow in the country.

NEW TAX YEAR GETS UNDERWAY

Lomax Starts Property Revaluations Today

Today, June 1, marks the beginning of a new year for the city assessing department. City Assessor G. K. Lomax, assisted by Mr. Hastings of the annual training department of the high school, this morning began the annual task of making property revaluations. This work is expected to take up the entire month of June.

With the adoption of the "unit value system" effective this year, all property owners are directed to note the change of value revaluations on the basis of the 1922 valuations, with possible changes along all lines.

Valuations Increase

How the valuations will be affected the assessor at this time is unable to say, but in view of the natural growth of the city for the year 1922 with approximate increases of $2,000,000 including the $1,000,000 Model addition and $1,000,000 in other improvements it is fair to assume that the valuations will be of an upward trend.

The two assessors plan to visit every property owner in the city including the recently annexed Model addition. In the event that any one will not be seen during the "rounds," the assessing office in the city hall will have a person there at all times to take questions at the office.

"We are especially anxious to get in touch with the residents of Model addition," Lomax said. "We want to meet all the people of this section."

"The system of unit valuation will also be employed in property revaluations of this addition, but will be based on the 1922 school revaluation with the same understanding that valuations may be completely changed, upward or downward."

Co-operation asked

"Cooperation on the part of the citizens of Port Arthur has been very gratifying in past years," Lomax said. "With the adoption of the new system we solicit the support of every citizen, for we don't want anyone to say that they were not apprised of the change of valuation revaluations."

A busy season opened for the assessing department today, not only for the assessors who will make the rounds of the city, but for the persons in charge of the office. It is the belief of the heads of this department that many will prefer to submit their revaluations of property valuations, and this assistance is encouraged and appreciated on the part of the men engaged in the work as it will facilitate this task which is no light one.

Port Arthur's phenomenal growth from year to year makes the problem a bigger one every year and any operation and support that is given in this regard means the saving of time to the department and results in an earlier tabulation and compilation of the city's property valuations.

EDUCATION BILL FACES HOT FIGHT

Farm Bloc Unalterably Opposed to Slash

AUSTIN, Texas, June 1.—Discussion of what steps will be taken to bring appropriations within the available revenues of the state is now the paramount question before the legislature.

Since the governor has vetoed all appropriations, little groups, individuals and blocs are discussing a way and means of meeting the question.

Farm Bloc Up in Arms

The farm bloc has gone on record as unalterably opposed to making any reductions in the rural school aid bill. It is a fact well known by a majority of the house members that the senate will not pass out a rural school aid bill for more than $1,500,000. Some are inclined to think the upper branch will cut this amount possibly a quarter of a million dollars.

"The house appropriations committee has the judiciary bill ready to report back to the house and are now working on the elementary bill. The judiciary bill was passed out carrying practically the same appropriations as passed both houses."

The elementary bill will be trimmed considerably before being sent to the floor.

Trim School

Many members of the committee as well as members of the house are in favor of trimming the educational bill.

bill 10 per cent, starting at the top and coming right down the line. This would chip more than a million and a quarter dollars from these bills. It is an unquestionable fact the educational bills will receive the hottest fight on these opposing and proposing these measures.

Fourth Session Forecast

Four leaders of both branches of the legislature are of the opinion that the ending of the appropriations cannot be finished by the end of the third called session thus entailing the necessity of a fourth called session. Whether this will follow immediately or whether the governor will wait for a time before calling the legislature is only a matter of conjecture.

Following on the heels of the governor's veto of all appropriation measures yesterday the house today started off by wangling over the installation of electric fans in the legislative chambers. This was followed by a resolution to empower the payment of telegraph bills out of the contingent expense account. The latter was killed, and the former referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

ALIENS UNDER ORDERS FOR DEPORTATION JAILED

Five deported aliens, one Cuban, and four Spaniards, who arrived on the American S. S. Lake Slave Friday morning, were taken into custody by local immigration officers, and placed in the city jail until the steamer sailed.

The foreigners were arrested at Laredo, Texas, and are being deported to Havana, Cuba, the steamer being on route.

PRESENTS THAT ANY BRIDE WOULD ADORE CAN BE MADE BY CLEVER FINGERS AT HOME

One time is bride time; and with June here today many begin to wonder what would make appropriate presents for the happy June brides.

If one has more time and ingenuity than money, there are many gifts which can be made for the girl who will be a June bride and which will be presents that any bride would love. Nothing will please her more than cheek gingham curtains for her kitchen windows, blue, pink or yellow, with hot dish holders, apron, table scarf and towels to match. Sounds much more elaborate than it really is.

The curtains are made with a fine valance, and the side hangings are left unhemmed at the top with valance made so that they may be used to fit the average kitchen window.

The table scarf is simply a rather plain runner, to lay on the immaculate work table, when the pretty dishes are all washed and put away, and the tiny kitchen put in order.

For the holders, a half dozen of them, just ordinary square affairs. Each finished with a black crocheted border and a gilt safety pin to fasten it to the kitchen apron. The apron itself is a rather frivolous affair, cut with a long waist and deep lace at the bottom, made with good straps so that it will slip over the dress. The bride may add to this a gingham cover for her favorite book if she likes.

The tea towels are as practical as they are good looking. They are finger socks, ripped open, washed in the home bound in bias gingham, and a gift would be valued by the bride more than many of her expensive silver and china possessions.

Bridge sets are always acceptable. The bride adores something unique and different for her first parties in her new home. The shops are showing some very unusual designs in bridge tables. Some of these are the work of old-fashioned cross-stitch in vivid Bulgarian reds and blues. Some are designed for open embroidery, and others for the very effective patchwork.

Rainbow guest towels, hostess aprons, lace chair backs and arms, basing table things covered with lace and tiny French flowers, any of these may be made by turning a clever finger, and given with the assurance that they will be accorded a place of honor in the bride's home.

WHY HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE VICTIMS CANNOT GET INSURANCE

It is significant that in the examinations conducted by insurance companies and by the Life Extension Institute and other similar bodies, the latest attention is given to the reading of blood pressure. The very presence of high blood pressure indicates that without immediate treatment, an incurable condition is certain to arise that must eventually end in death.

High Blood Pressure is generally brought on by the absorption of poisons from the wastes retained too long in the intestines. These poisons act on the muscles of the arteries, causing them to contract and forcing the heart to pump harder to force the blood through the body. To reduce high blood pressure these poisons must be eliminated and the wastes fully eliminated from the body.

A well-known physician has made a valuable discovery of a new preparation that quickly and effectively does two important things. This new preparation has been so successfully used in thousands of cases treated by physicians that it was finally decided to put it up in convenient tablet form and authorize agents everywhere to dispense it for the name Bi-A-Lin.

If you suffer from headaches, are fatigued, have dizzy spells, do not sleep well, have ringing in the ears, are nervous, inclined to worry, you have symptoms of high blood pressure. Do not run the risk of worse conditions to come by neglecting these danger signals. Get a bottle of Bi-A-Lin from your druggist today. He is authorized to dispense it with a guarantee to return your money if you do not experience wonderful relief from a single bottle.—adv.

Winning Streak Checked by End of Texaco Stars in Snappiest Game of Season on Lakeshore Diamond.

By BILL ARCHER
PRIESTER'S Texaco Stars took the fastest game that has been played on Lakeshore diamond yesterday afternoon, when his club took the League leaders into camp, 1 to 0, in a six-frame event that carried the Good Gulf squad down a notch in the standings.

Lauve, hurling his second game of the season in the City League against the Gulfies, was entirely too much a puzzle for the Davietes to solve, and the speedy little Texas twirler dropped the opposing players with three hits which were well scattered.

Oliver, chosen as moundman by Skipper "Rusty" Davis, managed to let the Texas lads down with three lonesomes himself, but the Texas Company club got them together in the second round, and with Burch on base through error at short, a sacrifice, a single and a two-base clout brought in the only tally of the contest.

The game was clean and snappy throughout the six-period route, and drew the praise of the sidelines for its exhibition of skill on the part of both contestants.

It was a typical pitchers' battle, and practically the whole fight was waged from the mound. As a result, Lauve and Oliver came out in almost "draw," the former striking out six Gulfies and issuing two bases on balls, while Oliver struck out six of the Texaco Stars and refused to grant a walk.

Airlight support in the field—the best the Texas Company has exhibited this season—helped them to take the Gulfies into camp and win.

The contest opened with the Texas Company at bat, and Oliver made it "three up, and three down" for their turn with the stick. Rodriguez struck out; Mazorot met the same fate, and Rouner popped to Kelley and was caught at the initial bag.

Lauve showed the same brand of baseball when he took the mound. Trauth singled; Flagg sacrificed, and the latter went the route Flagg had chosen, being thrown out at first station by Lauve. And at that turn of the game, one of the nearest plays of the issue developed, when Kring shot the ball to bell and caught Trauth at the plate, making a double play.

Trauth suffered a sprained ankle as a result of his slide for the final bag, and was forced from the field. Davis going into left, and Smith taking center for the Gulf.

The Texacos made their score in the first of the second. Burch lead-off, and went to first when Flagg muffed up one. Priestor sacrificed, Oliver to Kelly. Earhart singled, Burch taking third. Kring doubled, sending Burch safely home, but Earhart went out at the counting ribbon on the throw-in. Smith to Darden to Cadenhead, and Kring stopped at the third bag on the play. Bell was out at first, Flagg to Wagner, retiring the side. Thus on two hits, coupled with an error which permitted the scoring run to gain first base, the Texas Company clinched their game.

The rest of the way it was a hotter session.

The Gulf placed four men before Lauve in their portion of the clash, but the side was retired without incident.

Lauve permitted another hit in the last of the third, and another was chalked against him in the result of "Rusty" Davis in the last of the sixth, but they went for naught.

Several unusual plays developed on the field during the afternoon, and on a couple of occasions a fielder drew down two errors on a lone ball, gaining one by miffing the pill while a base-runner gained first safely, and copping the next by throwing wildly over the head of the first sacker, permitting the same runner to get to second.

Spirit and fight featured the clash, and the game is indicative of future swift encounters on the City League diamond. The week in the League will be formally closed today with the Texacos and the Islanders tying up on Lakeshore. The Islanders have successfully trimmed the Texacos in the last two games they have played against Priestor's squad, and on both occasions the contest went for a white-wash result.

Veteran Wichita Catcher To Take Helm of Beaumont Team

Special to The News
BEAUMONT, Texas, June 1.—Frank (Pop) Michelson may be the next field captain of the Beaumont Exporters, according to word received here from Manager Bob Tarkenton, who indicated in a message to local fans that Michelson, obtained from Wichita Falls, may take the helm of affairs succeeding Stumpy Edgington, whom the club arrived in Beaumont tomorrow for a series of games.

Edgington's resignation came somewhat as a surprise to fans here, but followed a conference of club officials held behind closed doors. Edgington will probably still remain with the team as a centerfielder.

'FARMER' SEES CHANCE FOR TOM TO BEAT CHAMP

Says Jack Topped Big Ones Because of Speed

By JACK JUNGMEYER
BURBANK, Calif., June 1.—If Dempsey isn't in the best condition possible on July 4, there's a good chance that Gibbons will whip him. He'll know he's been in a fight, anyway.

Jim Jeffries walked out this afternoon without preliminary sparring when I had tracked him down in his alfalfa field at the Burbank ranch to get his comment on the Shelby battle. He had just finished a workout with irrigation pipes and a lot of rocks that needed picking.

"I'm judging Gibbons' caliber wholly from what I've been told about the boy. You understand, I've never seen him in action. Never saw Dempsey in the ring, either, for that matter. But I'm not in any way belittling Jack when I say that Gibbons will give him a fight."

"Tommy is fast and clever. He has two hands. He can take 'em and give 'em. I know of no one else who can stand up to Dempsey."

"It'll be a far better fight, I'm sure, than the Dempsey-Carpenter scrap. As I repeat, Dempsey will have to be in the pink of condition to defend his title."

"Jack has topped over the big ones because they were slow. He fights pretty open. Tommy Gibbons is just the kind of boy to take advantage of that. And from what I hear, he's got the punch that'll do the business if he gets the chance. This Shelby fight is no sure thing."

Jeffries stepped into another round with the rocks, flinging them into a wagon. Then he lounged against the wheel, the breeze whipping a towel in his sweaty face, flaring the number from his hirsute chest. I marked the gray at his temples, and his leisurely movements, but behind these tokens there was still a hint of resilience and preserved power of the fighting bullfighter who turned farmer.

"I don't see many promising youngsters coming up in the game," he reflected, chewing an oat straw and fidgeting into an answer of my question as to other likely contenders against Dempsey.

"Folk are getting flabby. The country is losing physical stamina. Everybody, kids and men, looking for a soft job. Growing up soft. Unable to stand the punch. Soft in body and soft in the head. As a boy I never liked to fight, but at 14 I could lick big men. I worked for my muscle and stamina."

"Lately I looked into the old shop where I used to work. The boss told me that for all the machinery and labor-saving devices, the output of the factory wasn't what it was in the old days when men worked with their jobs with iron muscles. That's it—every one wanting to save labor, afraid to sweat, getting flabby. And the fighting game is beginning to show it."

It's hard to keep Jeff's thoughts focused on fighting. Amid his alfalfa and roses, he's become a philosopher. From Dempsey and Gibbons, Willard and Firpo, under the spell of his recent Biblical and historical research, the big fellow humbers earnestly back to Paul, Moses and Pilate, citing the Bible much more than the Marquis of Queensberry.

Sabine, Out After Stronger Material, Is Anxious for Clashes

Sabine will have a stronger ball team.

This is the announcement made here this morning by officials of the Sabine semi-pro nine, who dropped into town to look for bigger game to take in town on the Sabine diamond.

The Sabine club met defeat the past Sunday at the hands of Skipper Tommy Gardner's club of the City League and the result is that the powers that be in that vicinity are out hunting better material to present against other members of the local league.

"We want some of these clubs to come down and see us," was the message they heard here, "and when they come we'll be prepared to entertain them."

OFF OF SLIM ONES
WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Clarke Griffith of the Washington club, always strong for pitchers who measured six feet or better, is beginning to weaken on the elongated species.

"Slim" McGrew, better known as "Dangerous Dan," is the latest big fellow to "flavor" for the Nationals. McGrew is the tallest pitcher in captivity, his perpendicular measurement being six feet seven inches, a fraction of an inch better than Harris of the Athletics.

There is an interesting story connected with McGrew that may be nothing more than a myth. McGrew puts down a mighty large pair of shoes. The size of his feet has never been revealed, but it is said such shoes are not carried in regular stock.

Pitching down in a small Texas town he was recommended to the Galveston club. That club made him an offer. He accepted, but said it would be impossible for him to come unless he first got a pair of shoes size such and such. The shoe were sent on and McGrew reported. The cost of a pair of shoes later brought back $5000, the sale price of McGrew.

RESERVED SEATS FOR BIG BATTLE READY FOR SALE

Airships to Carry Blocks to Fight Fans

SHELBY, Mont., June 1.—Reserved seat tickets for the Dempsey-Gibbons heavyweight championship fight to be staged here July 4 were today prepared for distribution.

Blocks of ring-side tickets will be sent out by airplane and mail and Mike Collins will go to the Pacific coast cities to take charge of the distribution.

Inspection of the arena today disclosed that no damage had resulted from the heavy storm that broke here last night and flooded the section with much needed rain.

Collins said today he was sure the arena would be sold out to its capacity of 40,000. He is planning to have 20,000 more seats constructed if the ticket sale warrants it.

Jack Dempsey is on a fishing trip and McGraw is at his home in St. Paul. Gibbons is expected to return the first of next week with his family, and he will start final training.

EUGENE CRIQUI SURE HE'LL WIN

French Champ Feels Confident of Results

NEW YORK, June 1.—Eugene Criqui, European featherweight champion, today announced he would knock out Johnny Kilbane in the sixth round when they meet here tomorrow.

The 34-year-old Frenchman, who fought his way to the European championship after he had part of his jaw shot away at Verdun, said he felt that he weighed 124 pounds and that he was ready to take the title.

Kilbane, on the theory that socks and not words win fights, refused to enter a prediction on what he would do.

"I'm the champion, and I feel as good as I ever did. You know what I mean," he said.

The champion said he was also an er weight, and that he would spend the rest of the day doing nothing but finishing his training two days ago.

Tom O'Rourke, who is staging the contest in the park of the New York Giants, said the grounds would hold 6,000 spectators and he expected to have customers for all the seats.

The card starts at 3:30 eastern daylight time with a four-round main event between Jackie McCoy and Dave Jones.

The second event will be six rounds between Al Zeuner, Kilbane's chief sparring partner, and Billy Levine.

Two eight-round bouts will follow between Jack Sharkey and Johnny Curtin, and the semi-final will be staged between Kid Kaplan and Babe Herman, two contenders for the pathy eight crown.

If all the bouts go the limit the main event is expected to get under way not later than 5:30 and if the preliminaries do not go the distance the final will be staged earlier.

Kilbane is riding a 7 to 5 favorite in the betting, and there seems to be very little French money on the market.

Why was the stylin' restored after its abolition for more than a year?

The stylin' was restored because it was regarded as a mistake for the United States to play a style of golf that differed from the rules that governed the game where it was founded.

The opinion of those who favored a restoration of the stylin' was that it represents a part of the science of the game, and that it would be a grave error to develop a style that differed with the game as played abroad.

How many times has Miss Moya Stirling won the national championship?

Miss Moya Stirling is three national champion. She won such honors in 1918, 1919 and 1920. In 1917 and 1918, because of the war, the event to decide the national champion was not staged. In 1921 Miss Stirling was defeated in the final by Marjorie Hollins, 5 to 1.

In stroke competition Smith dived two shots and then was unable to find his ball. He dropped another ball and then found his original ball. Five minutes was spent in searching for the first ball, it then being regarded as lost. His Smith the right to play the original ball without suffering a penalty.

After searching for five minutes and being unable to find the first ball, the second ball came into play. He missed Smith made a stroke with it. It is never permissible to have two balls in play. Hence when Smith played his first stroke with the second ball it came into play, and continued in play, regardless of the fact that the first ball was later discovered.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, on June 1, 1898, Elton Chamberlain, former Cleveland pitcher, was about to become a boxer, according to reports in Buffalo.

Port Arthur Sends Strong Team After Honors at Orange

Port Arthur's Country Club will be well represented in the fourth round of the Inter City Golf League tournament to be played on the Pinehurst Country Club course tomorrow, it was announced here today.

The players to represent the nation's fifth port will probably be chosen tonight, and a strong contingent will leave here tomorrow in preparation for the meet.

Port Arthurians visited the Pinehurst links during the past week, and tried out the course, in preparation for the fourth round and the first to be played officially in Orange.

CRABS OUSTED
FORT WORTH, June 1.—Three runs behind when they came to bat in the ninth the Crabs staged a rally that fell but one run short of a tie and furnished another thrill to a ball crowd.

The champion said he was also an er weight, and that he would spend the rest of the day doing nothing but finishing his training two days ago.

BOOSTS KAMM
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 1.—"Willie Kamm of the Chicago White Sox is the greatest fielding third baseman I have ever seen in action," says

Umpire Brick Owens of the American League.

"This fellow Kamm can do everything that Bradley and Collins ever did and besides has a few tricks of his own," says Owens. "I don't think he will ever lead the league in batting, but he will hold up his end at the bat."

In the spring series with the Giants I saw enough of Kamm to convince me that he is a real big leaguer. Chicago won't have to worry about third base for a long time. Kamm can go in either direction and is a wonder on balls hit down, the foul line, the seemingly impossible chances."

TINTED TRAVELS

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Nanny and Nick were as busy as sailors helping.

It was Farmer Brown's potato patch that kept the Ragdies the busiest. From the very first minute the potatoes started to grow there was trouble. The little green shoots went up into the air and sunshine and daylight of the potato field, and the little brown roots went down through the ground into the dinnies of Ragdies Land.

But when Farmer Brown stood on his porch and said, "My, my! But the potatoes are growing finely," he never suspected the things that were happening under the ground.

In the first place, there were the spring rains. It rained and it rained all through April and part of May. Just because the dark green potato shoots grew so fast people said, "That's good growing weather. Just see!"

But I'll tell you what was happening. The Ragdies rolled up their sleeves and dug ditches to carry the water away. If they hadn't, Ragdies Land would have been flooded and the potatoes washed clear out of the ground. Then came dry weather when there was no rain at all, at all.

The young potatoes just forming at the ends of the roots, opened their sleepy eyes and said, "We're thirsty. Please give us a drink."

So the Ragdies carried water from the brook in their little buckets and watered them.

Nanny and Nick were as busy as sailors helping. In their magic shoes they looked like Ragdies, too. And nearly as rugged, for their clothes were almost worn out with turning. Then the potato-bugs! They just sat there in their striped coats as though they owned the place. They had to be chased every day.

But it was fun. The Twins liked being useful.

RECOGNITION SOON, BELIEF

Mexico Presents Reading of Land Laws

MEXICO CITY, June 1.—Prospects of a satisfactory conclusion within two weeks of the United States-Mexican recognition conference seemed brighter today.

The conference today heard the Mexican exposition of agrarian laws by Commissioner Ros.

While the conference is proceeding, President Obregon is completing plans for the machinery of tax collection.

A decree last fall provided for collection of special taxes but the machinery never has been provided.

The conference has completed the discussion on oil rights and it is believed that a satisfactory agreement has been reached.

The agrarian problem probably will be settled early next week.

After that the question of claims will be taken up.

The conference will not take up the boundary question, leaving that also for the arbitration board.

ACCUSED SOLON SAYS JURORS FRAMED HIM

AUSTIN, Texas, June 1.—Representative Virgil E. Arnold of Houston, who has been indicted by the Harris county grand jury on a charge of embezzlement declared here today that it was a "frame-up" on him. He asserted the action of the grand jury in returning the indictment was unfair in that he was not summoned before it, before the indictment was returned.

Here's news from Cuba. Havana has built a hotel to hold about 200 guests when full, or 1000 sober guests.

MEXICAN CONSUL
BEGINS A PROBEDemands Punishment for Dallas Boys in Row

DALLAS, Texas, May 31.—Mexican Consul S. Barrera Guerra today prepared to make formal complaint to Mayor Louis Haylock following numerous clashes between American and Mexican youths in and around "Little Mexico" here, climaxing last night in the wounding of a Mexican.

Two shot
Rosario Bertran, 24, was shot in the leg by autoists as he stood beside a road here last night. Following the shooting, the youth's assailant drove away, leaving him bleeding on the sidewalk, witnesses declared.

Another Mexican, Francisco Morio, 15, was fired upon, but unhurt, he reported to police.

The shooting followed two near riots this week each participated in by about 25 Mexicans and American boys and young men. The first of these occurred Sunday night, following a baseball game and the second Monday night. Six Mexicans were arrested.

A thorough investigation into the "clash" between the Mexicans and Americans will be asked by Consul Guerra, he declared today.

Comely to get Protection
"I want this investigation to be made so that those responsible can be punished," Guerra said.

"At present six Mexican youths have been arrested for the first of these Sunday night, but as yet no Americans have been arrested. This is very peculiar; I'm sure the Mexican boys can't be the only ones at fault."

Police Chief Louis Brown promised a thorough investigation and the punishment of those guilty of the shootings. Meanwhile he said "Little Mexico" would be given complete police protection.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 31.—"He sure made himself at home," declared Mrs. C. E. Moreland here today in reporting the burgling of her home by a burglar during the absence of the family last night.

"He cooked himself a square meal and left the dirty dishes. He stole four valuable rings and then dumped all my clothes in the bath tub and turned the water on them," she told police.

TO EXHUME BODY
OF AGED WOMANFreak Cancer Cure Treatment Brings Action

CHICAGO, May 31.—The body of Mrs. Anna Kolar, who died after treatment at the Lombard Sanatorium, near here, was ordered exhumed today to determine whether death was due to cancer, as shown in the death certificate, or to starvation, as claimed by relatives.

The order followed an investigation by John F. Fellner of the state department of registration, of reports of long fasting by patients in the sanatorium, and of the use of a "cold water cure." It was claimed the water was turned on the patient through a needle point nozzle following "sun baths" in the nude, Fellner said.

Mrs. Kolar's body was ordered dug up as a result of a conference between Oscar Wolfe, coroner of Cook county, and Coroner Kopf of DuPage county, where the sanatorium is located.

HELSINKI, Finland, May 31.—Fire sweeping through an opera house in Petrograd last night caused panic among the spectators, and many are reported to have been killed and injured.

The theatre was destroyed, according to advices received here.

The blaze started when the dress of an actor ignited during the performance. It spread rapidly, and soon the entire place was in flames.

CLAUD KITCHIN
DIES SUDDENLYNoted Demo. Leader Suc-
cumbs to Stomach Trouble

WILSON, N. C., May 31.—Claud Kitchin, noted democratic leader, died in the hospital here early today. Kitchin, democratic floor leader of the house in the last congress had been ill for a long time of stomach trouble. He had a relapse several days ago following what appeared to be an improvement in his condition.

The end came at 6:10 a. m. today.

A Picturesque Figure
Kitchin's death removes one of the most picturesque and influential figures in the south.

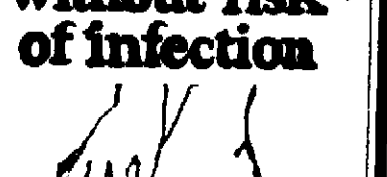

He was born near Scotland Neck, Halifax county, North Carolina, March 24, 1860, the son of William H. Kitchin a member of the forty-sixth congress, and Maria F. (Arlington) Kitchin. He graduated from Wake Forest College in June, 1888, with the degree of Bachelor of Laws and in the same year married Miss Kate Mills. He was admitted to the North Carolina bar in September, 1890.

Kitchin never held public office before his election to the 57th congress as a democrat from the second North Carolina district in November 1900, but once having donned the harness he never left it.

In 12 Congresses
He was successfully re-elected to every congress after the 57th and at the time of his death was member-elect of the 68th congress, the 12th consecutive congress his constituents returned him to, and the 12th house member in length of service, with 22 years.

When Champ Clark was speaker during the 64th and 65th congress, Kitchin became majority floor leader. He relinquished the position of democratic leader to Clark when the republicans regained control of the house in the 66th congress.

Living a Week

Complaint of murder will be filed against B. S. Hernandez, Mexican, placed under $500 bond last week at a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace W. F. James on a complaint of shooting with intent to murder, following the death of Jose Arce, Mexican, in Mary Gates hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Arce lived a week after a piece of his skull was blown off with a charge of bird shot in a shooting scrape in the Mexican quarters Tuesday night of last week. B. S. Hernandez surrendered to Captain J. C. Enright at the Houston avenue fire station and turned over a double barreled shot gun to the police following the shooting.

Hernandez claims he fired at a group of men who tried to take possession of the house he was occupying. They shot at him with pistols, he told the police, before he returned the fire with a shot gun.

"No single act could be so potential in securing an early reasonable modification of the Volstead enforcement act as your giving your unequalled approval to the repeal," said Gomper, adding that he represented 20,000,000 Americans in the families of organized labor who are on record as favoring the return of wholesome beer.

Pointing to the magnitude of the question in dispute, Mr. Samuels Woodruff referred to the moment "the supreme hour of your life which may also very easily be the supreme hour in our nation's history and which may even decide the fate of our great people."

Good water, good bathing, plenty of "cuts" and fun are assured Boy Scouts attending the summer camp, Eddy said, and another feature is the fact that it is within driving distance of Port Arthur, giving parents, relatives and friends of the Scouts a chance to drive out Sunday afternoons and see the boys in camp.

Baseball outfits, fishing tackle, bathing suits and the usual list of hiking and camping equipment are among the things Scouts are reminded by their officials to take to the camp with them. Two swimming parties each day are provided in the camp schedule, and hikes and instruction in Scout and wood crafts hold places on the daily schedule of camp activities.

POTTS TO ACT AS C. OF C. MANAGER

Stump Goes Out Today to Enter Private Business

Until the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce has selected a successor to Roy Stump as manager of the organization here, Frank E. Potts, traffic manager of the chamber, will be in direct charge of both departments, it was announced yesterday by H. F. Banker, president.
"Banker said that no successor has been agreed upon and that it may be some time until the Chamber of Commerce chooses a man to take charge of the managerial office.
Stump's time in the office expired yesterday, he having announced his resignation several weeks ago, indicating that he would remain in private business in Port Arthur.

Banker let it be known some time ago that numerous applicants had requested the position, but indicated that the Chamber of Commerce directorate would meet later and decide upon a successor to Stump.
Potts will be assisted in his double duties for the present by the two assistants in the Chamber of Commerce.

E.T.E.C. TO START ON DOCK SOON

McFadden Promises Action in 30 Days

Eastern Texas Electric company plans for a fuel oil dock and storage tanks for their canal bank property, adjoining the city barns, go into action within the next 30 days when the erection of a 55,000 barrel fuel oil storage tank gets under way.

An announcement that the company is ready to go on its improvement program within a month's time was made before the city commission today by S. P. McFadden, Port Arthur manager of the Eastern Texas company.

Revelment Planned
Construction of the docks, where ship-load quantities of fuel oil can be discharged into the company's storage tanks, is scheduled to start in about 90 days, McFadden told the commission. Whether the docks will be of piling or concrete construction has not been determined, but a revelation to prevent erosion of the canal bank along the property will be built, he said.

Plans for the docks, showing various types of construction, are now being worked out by engineers, McFadden said. The storage tank will be constructed as soon as the steel materials can be assembled on the ground here, he said.

City to Remove Sewer
Before the ship can be dredged and the oil dock built, the city will have to remove several sewerage lines from the Eastern Texas Electric company's property. It was brought several months ago, and the commission passed a resolution to purchase a strip of land adjoining to place the lines on. McFadden was informed by Mayor Logan that funds for purchasing the strip of land are to be included in the city's budget, and the city's property will be removed before any delay to the electric company's building program results.

It is spring, and the farmers are feeling their oats.

ALL SHADES OF GREEN ARE APPROPRIATE FOR FROCKS FOR ANY HOUR OF THE DAY

ALL shades of green are favored by milady this summer. The mere repetition of the names of the shades of green that women are wearing and dressmakers are advocating is as soothing as the lapping of waves in a shady nook on a humid day. Cress green, lettuce green, cucumber green, lime and unripe lemon, creme de menthe—flocks of these colors may not actually ward off more of the sun's rays than reds or yellows or purples, but they are psychologically cooler, and that is the important thing in clothes.

There is a new shade of green that is being worn slightly and this is sometimes described as mustard. Dressmakers must rechristen it, however, to make it welcome as the days grow warmer.

Green is never launched as a fashionable color without some misgivings. Designers always say that they can never get their South American customers to wear much green. There is a prejudice against the color among Latin Americans, based doubtless on the fact that it is not usually becoming to the rather sallow pallor of most women south of Panama.

Recently the statement was made by an English dressmaker that the new green did not receive popular acceptance in Great Britain—because of the superstitious prejudice there against wearing the color. Perhaps the shamrock had something to do with it.

No such barriers seem to stand between American women and the verdant shades.

Green recommends itself for all hours of the clock's dial. It is as acceptable under the glare of a noonday sun as during the gloaming, as refreshing on the golf course as under the glow of candle light at dinner—as appropriate for dancing frocks as for tennis. At least there are shades of green that have all these possibilities.

With green the smartest combination this summer will undoubtedly be white. Green and gold, green and silver, green and rhinestones have been called for evening wear during the winter. The touch of clear, pure white is a better choice for summer. The prediction that white linens and cottons boldly printed in green, and white hats embroidered or otherwise trimmed in green, will be extremely smart for day-time wear is worth taking seriously, for shops are showing these combinations in all their displays. Many attractive linen frocks, sport suits, and regalia and raincoats of the green shades are being shown in all downtown shops.

THE home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elmer Baker was the scene of an attractively arranged affair last evening when a few of their friends surprised them with a perfectly appointed dinner in honor of their seventh wedding anniversary.

While Mrs. Baker was visiting in Beaumont, her friends arranged the surprise. The dining room was fragrant and beautiful with graceful arrangements of gladioli, which gave the predominant note for the pink and white motif of decoration.

The table, covered with a handsome Madeira dinner set, was centered with silver candelabra, holding softly glowing pink and white taper. The lovely blossoms, clustered in wicker baskets, guarded each end of the table, and suspended from the chandelier were streamers of tulle which terminated in fluffy bows at each guest's place. Maidenhair fern and delicate hydrangeas softly caught around the table as a border gave a distinctive touch to the appointments of the table. A seven course dinner was served.

At the close of the dinner, Mrs. Baker was presented with a large box and upon opening it found a piece of china. Her surprise was evident, not knowing whether it was a costly piece of china or just a joke by her friends. Her perplexity was soon dispelled, however, when she was told that she must go to "the end of the rainbow to find her pot of gold." After following numerous streamers of ribbons of various hues of the rainbow she discovered an attractively decorated box, and upon opening it found a beautiful lamb's wool blanket, covered with pink and white satin.

Those enjoying the charming affair in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Baker were Mayor and Mrs. J. P. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. James Hogan of Beaumont, Mrs. M. Weber, Mrs. Hazel Delman, Mr. R. E. Bourke and Mr. Harry H. Silber.

MR. AND MRS. WILL LINCOLN of Dallas are in the city to attend the commencement exercises of the Port Arthur High School. Their daughter, Miss Willie B. Lincoln, one of the most popular young women in school circles and who was acclaimed the prettiest girl in high-school, is a member of the graduating class of '33.

Miss Lincoln has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. T. A. Bandy of 2221 Sixth street, while she has been attending school here during the winter months.

MR. AND MRS. B. W. VAN Slyke and little daughter Geraldine of 315 Fifth street, have returned from Orange after a few days' visit with relatives.

MRS. J. P. LOGAN AND CHILDREN leave Saturday for Mineral Wells, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Logan's parents.

MRS. SCANNAN LOER, who left this morning for Washington, D. C., to visit her daughter during the summer months, was tendered a charming luncheon by a group of friends at the First Methodist Episcopal church at her home, 1201 Sixth street.

Social conversation gave diversion during the evening, and the presentation of the pretty handkerchiefs, to Mrs. Loer's friends by Mrs. A. P. Grubbs. Delicious refreshments of lemonade and cake were served.

Those participating in the surprise were Mrs. Isabella Baruch, Mrs. W. E. Blackstock, Mrs. L. L. McMaster, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. P. S. De Witt, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. E. C. Follette and daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Rita Gray, Mrs. A. F. Genham, Mrs. G. H. Green, Mrs. McGuire and daughter, Hattie, Mrs. Frank Montgomery, Mrs. J. A. Paschal and Miss LENN LOEB. The Eight Leagues of Jefferson county were guests of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Lake Shore drive and Stilwell boulevard, Tuesday evening.

About one hundred and fifty young people were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. The program dealt with different phases of League work. The banner that the Union awards to the League having the largest attendance went to the Nederland League, which had 25 members out of their membership of 26 present, besides 11 visitors.

After the devotional service the young people were ushered into the spacious basement of the church where a social hour was enjoyed and tempting refreshments were served.

The Union will have its next regular business meeting at Sabine Pass on July 10.

MRS. LLOYD ELDRIDGE OF 1815 Ninth street has returned after a pleasant visit with relatives in Abbeville, La. She was accompanied home by her little niece, who will visit here during the month of June.

MRS. JIM MINER OF 1835 Ninth street left Tuesday for a short visit with relatives and friends in Abbeville and Lafayette, La.

MISS NETTIE TAYLOR, president of the Port Arthur Campfire association, leaves tonight for Orange, where she will accompany the Orange campfire girls on their summer camp and teach them handicraft.

The Orange campfire girls' summer camp will be held in Newton county. They leave tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock for camp. This is the Orange girls' summer camp, and 65 girls have been enrolled for the camp this year.

Miss Taylor announced today that the campfire girls and guardians would meet in the future at the camp grounds at Webster building. The campfire efforts in the Wabasso campfire met on Lake Shore drive are being moved this week to the rooms at Webster building.

AMONG THE CHARMING AFFAIRS given this week for "sweet girl graduates" was Miss Nettie Taylor's hospitality Tuesday evening at her home, 1629 Seventh street, when she entertained with an informal dinner, naming as honor guests, Misses Mary Warren, Edith Davis, Estelle Taylor, and Maxine Kuhlman, members of the graduating class and also members of Miss Taylor's Wabasso Camp Fire.

The home was profusely adorned with sweet peas, the class flowers, clustered in flat bowls and baskets at vantage points about the rooms. Victrola music gave inspiration for dancing, and during the evening delicious punch was served.

Those enjoying the delightful affair were Misses Mary Warren, Edith Davis, Estelle Taylor, Maxine Kuhlman, Florice Akin, Jeanne Serville and Clarice Akin; Messrs. Nicholas Hyde, Everett Palmer, Clayton McGuire, Glenn Bell, Arthur McGuire, Frank Taylor, Lester Hewett, Cecil Sands and Wendle Horn; and the Members of the Protheum Class will be hostesses on this occasion.

Biggens, Mrs. A. V. Corby, Mrs. R. T. McCallum, Mrs. Edith Lyons Jones, Miss Helen Porter, Miss Elizabeth Young, Miss Maude Hendrickson, Mrs. T. J. Twomey, and Mrs. R. L. Drake.

An orchestra, composed of Misses Lucille Carter, Elizabeth Young, Frances Carter, Helen Porter, and Golda Hunsel, will play the program. Musical selections throughout the evening, Miss Lucy Griffin of Yazoo City, Mrs. McGuire's house guest, will also appear on the program. Miss Griffin is a talented musician and a reader of note.

Attractive booths will be in evidence at the musical-bazaar and will be presided over by bazaar managers in quaint costumes, who will sell hand-made aprons, linens, and candies. They will also serve delicious refreshments. The proceeds of the affair will go toward the building fund.

MRS. F. H. HAYES OF 2420 Procter street leaves tomorrow morning for a three months' visit in New York City and other New York points, and in Pittsburgh and points in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Hayes will return about the first of September.

MRS. J. E. BIGGENS IS SPENDING the week in Houston, the guest of Mrs. L. R. Holmes. She is also going to Galveston to be present at the graduation of her brother, C. R. Halloran, from the College of Medicine.

CITY HONORS ITS SOLDIER DEAD

Memorial Exercises Held on Library Porch

Port Arthur honored America's dead. A large representation of Port Arthur's citizens assembled in front of the Memorial library porch and with impressive services paid humble tribute to those who died for liberty.

At 5 o'clock Wednesday evening members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, ex-service men and Boy Scouts formed ranks in front of the K. C. S. station, and with the band playing, standards and Old Glory waving buoyantly in the breeze, the procession started up Procter street to Stilwell boulevard.

Arriving at the library the uniformed men and others participating stood at rigid attention, facing the library, as the spectators crowded along the sides of the promenade, many also stationing themselves on the library steps.

Guy Halton, post commander, acted as master of ceremonies, and called on Rev. William Oeschger, pastor of the First Christian church, for invocation.

Nicholson Delivers Address. Major A. A. Nicholson of the Reserve Corps, was the speaker. Briefly reviewing the part America played in the years during her history, and reminding the audience of the sacrifice made by those who "sleep in the valley of death" he entered into a fitting panegyric to the American flag.

He said in part: "I believe that if man should ever feel it is when he stands before that heaven-inspired combination of red, white and blue."

"The red represents the blood of America's best manhood, which has freely flowed that we might come to realize the full significance of the word democracy; the white represents the purity of ideals which prompted the birth of our nation and I am convinced that our founders felt that it would ever serve as a reminder of those high ideals for which we should constantly strive. The blue was taken from the heavens and represents the loyalty in the acquisition of individual equality and national freedom. Likened unto a mother's love that flag is only understood as the soul is stirred and mere words are but feeble expressions of what we term patriotism."

At the close of the address Rev. Oeschger pronounced the benediction. The Memorial Day services ended with the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner"—every soldier and Boy Scout standing at attention.

The crowd then disbanded, delegations of the ex-service men going to cemeteries to place flowers on the graves of the soldier dead.

Japanese Hotels Filled With Foreign Tourists

TOKYO, May 31.—The cherry blossoms that bloom in Japan in the spring—tra-la-la—are very pretty, provided you don't have to sleep in the park.

A party of Americans who had all the drag in the world breezed into Tokyo a few days ago. They had enough money to buy the biggest hotel in town if they wanted to. They had enough political influence back home, if they cared to use it, to get the state department on the job. They had the Japanese foreign office and half the men in Tokyo of real influence, both Japanese and Japanese, trying to get them rooms at the Imperial Hotel. But they were out of luck.

Tourist travel to Japan has increased very greatly during the last six months. Tourist business is booming and it bids fair to continue to do so.

Wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to those who so kindly assisted during the illness and death of our dear little son, O. J. Jr., and also for their beautiful floral offerings.

Polka Negri and Gloria Swanson of Temperamental Shakes

HOLLYWOOD, May 31.—Every one of the Lasky studio casts testifies to the vanquishment of Pola Negri in one of many stormy tilts featuring her painful adjustment to the life on the American movie lot.

The cut episode, as witnesses relate it, has become a Hollywood epic, with the Polish actress and Gloria Swanson in the leading roles. And it is being used as a talking point by those who nominate her the most temperamental star in film-dom.

Polka, it seems, developed a deep aversion to felines. Soon after her pyrotechnical advent at the Paramount premises she "ordered" the studio pets banished, giving for reason a simple "I do not like."

Now heretofore there had been but the vaguest murmurs against her reported whimsies. Her refusal to accept the residence selected by Lasky officials had been merely "resisted."

Gloria Swanson had more or less graciously accepted Pola's usurpation of the best dressing room. The scenario department had moved out obedient to her orders.

Director George Fitzmaurice had merely gnawed his fingernails when Pola Negri periodically quit work, under plea of sickness, during the filming of "Bella Donna." Even her failure to recognize ladies to whom she'd been introduced was forgotten, if not forgiven.

But banishment of the studio pets—well, that plainly was the cat's meow and called for a showdown!

Miss Swanson instantly conceived an extreme fondness for felines. She ordered special milk delivered for them. Let anyone who dared so much as touch a single whisker on their poor heads! Bomb burst in air, and Paramount prayed while Hollywood titillated—but the cats still wave for the Lasky ramparts.

Priceless Historical Records Destroyed

LA POINTE, Wis., May 31.—Priceless historical records were destroyed, when flames swept historic Treaty Hall, the most famous building on Madeline Island. The structure, built in 1836 by the American Fur Company, was the scene of the signature of the famous treaty negotiated by United States commissioners with chief Hole-in-the-sky, head of the La Pointe Indian tribes.

Some of the most important records, in point of historical value, it is said were recently removed by Father Charon of Ashland, who is preparing a history of the Chequamegon bay region. Many others, however, including several documents stored in the vault of the Minnesota branch, D. A. R., were lost.

Treaty Hall was the most important remaining landmark of pioneer days on Madeline Island. Its name came from the agreement reached by the United States with Chief Hole-in-the-sky on September 20, 1824. The treaty, the second agreement reached by the government and the La Pointe Indians, defined the boundaries of the tribes' reservation.

Indian Battle Ground Scene of Shelby's Fourth of July Party

Shelby, scene of the Dempsey-Gibbons titanic heavyweight clash, July 4, is only a little Montana oil town, but it is booming! Half of its population lives in tents as this picture shows. Drilling operations are going on in all directions. Most of the folks who come to the fight will have to do their slumbering in sleeping cars. Miles of special tracks are being constructed.

other way very soon will reverberate through the county's jagged bluffs.

The splendor of rugged prairie, where the battered remnants of one of the mightiest tribes in the old west made their final stand, will become a battle ground again.

But the combatants won't be grotesquely painted savages. Tomahawks, war clubs and stolen carbines will be supplanted by padded mitts.

This historical Indian battlefield—unmarked today by even a single arrowhead—will be the scene of the greatest paleface fight of the year. It is not to be a death struggle between hostile tribes but a battle of brown and white.

Here on the afternoon of July 4, Tom Gibbons of St. Paul will strive to wrest the world's heavyweight championship belt from Jack Dempsey, superman of the squared circle.

The arena in which these modern gladiators will meet in twentieth century Roman festival is being built upon ground that once ran red with Indian blood.

Upon it stood the gallantly decorated tepees of the gallant Sioux in the winter of 1885-86, before the Blackfoot hordes swooped down upon them. Blackfeet scouts came down from the mountains and counted the Sioux numbers and horses. Then they reported back to their chiefs. A war council followed.

The battle cry of the oncoming Blackfeet echoed through the hills. A raid was on. The Sioux ranks, broken and leaderless, fled in disorder into Dakota.

That battle, fought just a mile west of here, still is fresh in the memories of many of Shelby's earlier residents.

Shelby first was a "tank town," source of supplies for cattle and sheep men, "liquoring up place for cowboys and frontiersmen." Then it became a center of agricultural interests. Now it is a booming oil town, growing so rapidly that half of its population lives in tents.

Huge derricks can be seen nearly twenty-five miles north of here as many active operations. Drilling for "liquid gold" is going on constantly. Real estate men from other parts come in daily, seeking possible locations here.

Yes, Shelby's story is just beginning.

HEAVEN IS HELL FOR THE WICKED

Dr. Moore, Nazarene Revivalist, Preaches on Sin

Failure to repent from sin is the price of hell, Dr. Moore said. He said that the most part of the world is in a state of sin, and that the present age is a time of sin.

These assertions were made in the evangelistic sermon delivered Wednesday night at the Nazarene tabernacle by Rev. J. E. J. Moore of Indianapolis.

Interest High

Interest and enthusiasm in the song service and prayers have been very encouraging to the evangelist and the pastor, they said, and last night the attendance was among the largest of the revival.

Mr. Ireland of Sherman, Texas, has charge of the song service. At the close of the service singing he said a solo, "Is Jesus Crowded Out of Your Life?"

Taking for his text the story of Dives and Lazarus, the speaker pointed to his audience the picture of hell, and at the close of the service many declared it was the most soul-stirring address of the revival.

"God isn't responsible for the damnation of any man, any more than you would be if you gave a man assistance in a fire and he remained badly and died."

Cry While on Earth

"God has made it easy for you to be saved if you will."

Speaking of the justice of God in rewarding the good and punishing the wicked, the speaker said: "The man who doesn't enjoy heaven if God let them in, for it wouldn't be conducive to their interests. Heaven would be hell to them if they got there."

"Better do your crying while on earth, while there is a chance for consolation. Dives had everything he wanted on earth, but when in hell he asked only for a drop of water and this was denied him."

"Crossing Over the Dead Lane" is the subject of the sermon tonight.

HYPNOTIZED INTO A BIGAMOUS MARRIAGE

BERLIN, May 31.—Aldolph Sins, charged into a Prague court charged with bigamy, declared his second wife hypnotized him, forcing him to marry her against his will.

"I don't know how it happened," Sins testified. "All of a sudden I was in a church, saw many people, stood before the altar and was required to kneel. A priest stood before me. I was very much wrought up. Beside me stood my bride who at every possible opportunity looked piercingly into my eyes so that I saw glittering before me all the colors of the rainbow. And so I was married a second time. As if in a semi-slumber I left the church."

The court, however, sentenced Sins to two months in jail and three years' loss of his Czech-Slovak citizenship. The judge, in delivering sentence, declared that "the next time you pass a church with a woman, see to it that you have a husband, or you may be married a third time and not know how it happened."

"For four years I suffered intense pain from jealousy of my own first wife," Miss Berger's husband is George Fitzmaurice, the motion picture producer and director.

What Type of Woman Makes the Happiest Wife? Here is an Unusual Answer by Scenario Writer

By MARIAN HALE

NEW YORK, May 31.—What type of woman makes the happiest wife? According to Theda Barera, scenario writer, it is what she terms the "high grade woman," who simply sells herself to her husband because it is easier than to hang on to her own individuality.

"Without understanding her husband's aims and ambitions, she pines for them, and apparently listening attentively while he soliloquizes on his importance, his present and his future," she explains.

"She feeds him well and sees he is properly clothed. She realizes his mental superiority and exaggerates it, looking up to him with something akin to awe."

"Many times you hear people say, 'I wonder what that man saw in me,' when commenting on a man's wife. The fact is he never saw anything but his own reflected image—and he fell for it. Had she manifested any personality of her own he would have been afraid of her."

She isn't ideal.

This type of wife is not, however, the ideal wife, Miss Berger says. "The ideal wife understands her husband's business and his temperament. She sympathizes with his ambitions and further them."

"But I do not believe husband and wife can work together harmoniously if they have the same purpose and ambition," she confesses.

"For four years I suffered intense pain from jealousy of my own first wife," Miss Berger's husband is George Fitzmaurice, the motion picture producer and director.

MUCH ART IN DOORN MANSION

Bill Transplants a Little Bit of Germany

DOORN, May 31.—The ex-kaiser has transplanted a little bit of Germany to Doorn castle.

Practically the entire household has been transported from Berlin and Potsdam, though a few of the servants are Dutch.

The household now consists of his family, representing himself and wife and three of her children, and the staff of employees, which has been cut down somewhat recently to curtail expenses.

Usually one chamberlain is on duty, the chamberlain's office using two assistants. A sort of lady-in-waiting attends Herminie. The boy is provided with a governess, while a minor is assigned to the two little daughters. Others in the retinue are two chauffeurs, cooks and kitchen maids, gardeners, chambermaids and a few valets—altogether a staff of approximately twenty-five. Since Herminie's arrival the discipline amongst the valets, which had become a bit loose while the kaiser was a widower, has been restored.

Such affairs are administered by Frederick, the son of a former monarch of Wurtemberg, where the crown prince is in exile.

The furniture was forwarded to Doorn from the Berlin and Potsdam castles. Of course, Wilhelm's agents chose the most beautiful and costly specimens from the royal German castles, making Doorn castle rather overloaded with objects of art, rugs, etc.

"The dishes contain many specimens of costly porcelain and silver embel-ished with the Hohenzollern coat of arms, though the food served, by no means, corresponds to the splendor of the vessels."

The library, which is partly made up of books brought over from Berlin, has been greatly augmented since the 1918 flight by books on the war and post-war developments. The larger part of the library is formed by English and French literature, which he reads equally as well as German.

he moments of mental anguish. But she's content.

"I'll confess the woman does not nag her husband into the divorce court or break up his home with her restless news, but what man really wants such consequences in his life?"

TO WITNESS ECLIPSE OF SUN IN MEXICO

LOS ANGELES, May 31.—Hundreds of scientists from a dozen nations of the globe are planning to go to Ensenada, Baja, California, 80 miles below San Diego, to observe an eclipse of the sun, which will take place in that region and in the extreme southern tip of California on Sept. 10.

Numerous scientists will also go to La Jolla, the Coronado Islands, and San Clemente Island.

Astronomers plan to take numerous photographs during the eclipse. At Ensenada the eclipse will be complete. Scientists are already making reservations, and it is certain that the little Mexican seaport village will not be able to accommodate all of its distinguished visitors.

MALE EARRINGS ARE CONDEMNED

BOISE, Idaho, May 31.—Members of the "warring wearing class" among the male members of the Boise high school were invited to "stay away from school" by the Pepperbox, the school organ, in a recent edition. Students a short time ago were set agog by the introduction of the "fad" of wearing earrings.

The incident, which received national editorial attention in the newspapers, on several occasions has been the subject of sarcastic criticism by the Pepperbox.

WINDSIDE, Neb., May 31.—Elic

Koopke, 12 years old, is under the protection of county authorities at Coyle, Neb., after she had been deserted there by Boyd Smith, 10, farm hand, who is sought on a kidnapping charge. Smith "eloped" with the girl when her father discharged him.

PETTICOATS NOW FOR FAIR ONES

Lead Weights in the Hem Keep Wind from Prying

NEW YORK, May 29.—It was learned from the highest authority that New York girls have been wearing petticoats for eight months. The strange thing about it seems to be that in spite of the severe gales of the last winter the skirts had not been previously known.

First intimation of the event came in a statement from M. Mossesohn, executive chairman of the United Petticoat League of America. He is glowing over the increased business, saying:

"The modern girl is a slave neither to fashion nor tradition. If fashion dictates a dress that displays her curves too prominently, the modern girl immediately seeks to remodel the cause for which evil eyes are turned toward her."

Don't Wind Mean Thing?

"This is why she has turned toward the petticoat in the last eight months. Paris and New York decreed the clinging garment. A slight breeze would cause it to give her a daring appearance. The modern girl felt embarrassed and flew to the protection of the petticoat."

Seeking confirmation or denial of the report, a reporter sped across City Hall park and stood in front of the Woolworth building, but did not succeed because there wasn't enough wind to tell which way a straw would blow, let alone a petticoat.

Four in Winter, Two in Summer "Always have," said she, "Have to freeze if I didn't. We wear four in winter; two in summer, and put lead weights in the hem."

The blonde giant directing traffic at Broadway and Barclay street should know.

"Well," said he, "I guess the guy's right from what I can see. I guess the girls are wearing some sort of petticoats lately from what I can see. I am a busy man but I notice those girls crowding in front of the Woolworth building have something on how they did not use to have on."

FLOWER SALE HELD AMONG TOMBSTONES

NEW YORK, May 31.—One of the most picturesque and memory stirring incidents of last week was the flower sale held by a business women's club in old St. Paul's church yard, down near Wall Street. The church yard is filled with the gray and crumbling gravestones of illustrious ancestors of the present New York. For a day the subdued place burst into color—gay umbrellas above little tables heaped with gorgeous flowers. Against the gray of the stones and the church walls, the splendid blossoming was like a blossoming of splendid memories.

King Declares McAdoo Will Be Next President

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Senator King, democrat, Utah, who returned from New York where he conferred with political leaders over the coming presidential campaign, is convinced William G. McAdoo will get the democratic nomination and "will be elected." He said, however, that if the election were held today "Henry Ford would be elected." Mr. King said the democratic platform will contain a plank in favor of an association of

PROFIT AND PLEASURE

Two subjects that appeal to every one within the age of reason. The major part of our life is spent in pursuit of these two objects.

VIA MUSIC

Most of us select a Vocation early in life. BUT, how many select an Avocation—some task outside of the regular routine that gives us a real pleasure to perform? Make Music YOUR Avocation! Nothing can possibly give you more pleasure than the ability to play a Musical Instrument. And if you decide to turn to Music for a livelihood you will enter a most lucrative field. Even though you do not adopt Music as a Profession you can follow the footsteps of thousands of others who are earning money, playing with Bands and Orchestras in their spare time.

MUSIC FOR GROWING CHILDREN

The parents who recognize the importance of giving the children an early start in Musical Training will, in time, reap the harvest of this thoughtfulness and foresight. A Musical Training give your child a tremendous advantage in life. It is an investment that will pay many dividends. And the instrument to start with need not be costly. There is not one instrument demonstrated at the SHOW that you cannot afford. Also, in selecting Band or Orchestra Instruments you will find that the children will evince great interest in them and will study and practice for all they are worth, because they know that they will be rewarded by admittance to some Junior organization, be it School Orchestra or Boy Scout Band.

SUCCESS

has been attained by many because of ability to play. Not only success as a Musician but in the Commercial field also. Two of the largest Musical Instrument factories are owned by former Bandsmen. A former Drummer is President of his own big factory. And hundreds of others were able to study for a career by day, while earning their living by night with their instrument. It is safe to say that, had they been deprived of a Musical Training, they never could have succeeded in a big way.

THINK IT OVER!

Come to the SHOW this week! Look-over the different instruments which have been prepared for your inspection. COME IN! There is no obligation to buy and, if you do care to make a purchase.

It should be applied like a heavy dew or light shower of rain with any force or air pressure spray. ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

They were painting queer-looking little things.

Everybody down in Ragsy Land were very busy. And you'll never guess what they were doing. Painting! Nancy and Nick and all the little Ragdolls, including Mister Tatters, were dipping paint brushes into buckets of red paint and painting. They were painting queer-looking little things— round all over except for a little point that stuck down, and they smelled like radishes. They smelled like radishes because they were radishes. That's what the Ragdolls were doing, coloring the radishes, nice and red in Farmer Brown's sassy patch garden. The sassy patch garden being over head, the radishes stuck down through the ceiling in Raggy Land underneath, in long, even rows, and the Ragdolls had to reach up to work. At first they had only been little slender things like strings. Then each day they got fatter and fatter until they were as round as marbles. That's when the painting began. The Twins, who were as small as the Ragdolls themselves, having their magic shoes, worked over so hard, Nick had just about finished one of his rows when Big Tag, one of the funniest little Ragdolls, yelled, "Oh, look!" Just in time, too, for an army of cut-worms, attracted by the smell, had decided to make a lunch of the radishes, and had poked their heads through the ground. It took the Ragdolls several minutes to drive them away with broom handles. But at last every one of the cut-worms was gone. "My!" said Nancy. "I don't believe Farmer Brown knows how much obliged he should be to the Ragdolls." (To be continued.)

He gave himself up to police two days ago and said he had lost his memory 12 hours before. He does not know who he is, but gave an accurate description of India where he had traveled. He has drawn many sketches, showing considerable ability. He is a man with pronounced American accent, is five feet tall. His nose was once fractured and his neck bears scars.

BISHOP AND ALDERMAN CARRY WIDOW'S WASH

DURHAM, England, May 31.—A laundress, a widow, was carrying home a big basket full of clothes. Alderman Alfred Pattison, a former mayor, saw the woman's strength was overtaxed and took one handle of the basket. A few moments later they met Bishop Wellington strolling along the river's bank, and he, too, offered to help. So bishop and alderman, each holding a handle of the basket, carried the clothes to the widow's house a quarter of a mile away.

MARKETS

WALL STREET JOURNAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, May 31.—Despite the extreme dullness prevailing most of the session today's market was more remarkable for the number of strong spots which crept out than for any special selling.

With the holiday out of the way stocks showed some disposition to break away from the lethargy which characterized Tuesday's dealings. But aggressiveness in the morning hours on the side of the advance in a few individuals like Standard Oil, Baldwin, Corn Products, California Petroleum and Mack Trucks was short lived. In the afternoon the general list had both little attraction to the speculative elements.

Possibly the most important feature of the day was a number of new developments pointing to a departure from the spirit of caution lately existing in the business world.

The market closed irregular:

Texas Company 45 1/2, off 1/2.
Steel 37 1/2, up 1/2.
Baldwin Locomotive 123 1/2, off 1/2.
American Locomotive 140, off 1/2.
California Petroleum 15, up 3/4.
Pan-American 7 1/2, off 1/4.
Studebaker 11 1/2, up 1/4.
Stewart Warner 2 1/2, up 1/4.
American Can 10 1/2, off 1/4.
American Woolen 5 1/2, off 1/4.
Cuba Cane 5 1/2, off 1/4.
Auriferous 42, off 1/2.
Southern Railway 34.
Atchafalpa 100, off 1/2.
New York Central 9 1/2, off 1/4.
NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, La., May 31.—The market closed steady.

Developments over the holiday furnished further evidence that fear regarding the business let-up had been carried to excess. The federal reserve statistics showed that wholesale sales in April were 9 per cent below March, but were 17 per cent above April, 1932. Announcement was also made that the Gary rail mills were booked ahead for a full year, demonstrating that ample business was in sight for the steel industry. Both in the cotton and railroads a confident tone in the early dealings Studebaker reached a new high on the move, 11 1/2, and other speculative leaders scored fair gains over the previous close. New York Central continued to head the advance in the corner group advancing fractionally to 9 1/2.
